Leo Atkinson captures handicap crown; James Hannah tops twins, all-around, HOA

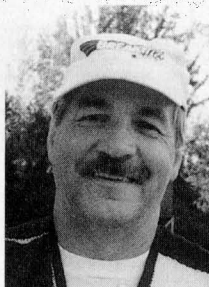

James Hannah posted 95 in the Doubles Championship to land the title outright during provincial shoot competition Aug. 29-31 at Moncton (N.B.) Gun Club. He also led all-around and high-over-all scoring with 367x400 and 637x700, respectively. According to TRAP & FIELD records, this is his third provincial crown each for doubles and the all-around.

David Williams, 2000 singles titlist, captured the honor again with 194 plus extras. Leo Atkinson hit 92 from 20 for the handicap championship.

John Nichols knotted with Williams in the feature 16s and ended with the runnerup trophy after shootoff. Janet Brake netted the women's crown with 165, which included her first 25 straight. Mike Toulany claimed the junior prize with 80x100. Derm Molloy broke 165 for the veteran title, and 1996 vet champ R. Ken Brunt earned this year's senior vet trophy with 179 plus one perfect overtime round.

Four-time doubles titlist Jerry Stafford cinched runnerup honors this year with 94. Michel d'Entremont placed second in the Handicap Championship with 91, while Alexander Cribb posted 90 for third.
